Subject: Home Insurance Policy No. LPL-F871578

Dear Sir or Madam:

The subject policy was issued to Bishop, Peterson & Sharp, P.C. and was cancelled effective February 6, 1994. (See attached notice). The carrier, Home Insurance Company went into Liquidation on June 13, 2003 and all insurance agents were given notice per the laws of New Hampshire set out in RSA 402-C:26. Agents were required, per C:27, to give notice to all policyholders named in any policy issued through the agent if the agent has in his possession a copy of the declarations of the policy at any time during the life of the policy.

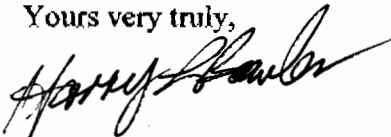

My request to you is for a copy of a notice, if any, of Home's liquidation sent to Bishop, Peterson & Sharp pursuant to the New Hampshire law soon after June 13, 2003.

Unfortunately, litigation has ensued about the policy. Officials of Home Insurance In Liquidation and of TPCIGA claim that the insurance company entered into a defense of the policy in late 1995 or in 1996 in response to a legal malpractice suit I filed in August 1995. If they did so, I was not made aware of it, and, at all times, Mr. Bishop refused to respond to requests for the insurance carrier liable for any judgments against the policyholders. It was not until October 2006 that a copy of the policy was produced for my inspection, at which time I discovered the policy had expired in February 1994.

As a result, the matter is now before the New Hampshire Superior Court in New Hampshire. These people are interfering with my suit against Bishop and others here in Harris County and I want them out of my life. Your letter, if any, to Bishop may help to clear up matters.

Any information you can supply will be much appreciated. Thank you much for your help.

Yours very truly,

Harry L. Bowles

Dear Mr. Bowles,

The purpose of this letter is to respond to your letter of February 2, 2009.

We have reviewed our records and have determined that no notice went from this office to Bishop Peterson & Sharp, P.C., when the Order of Liquidation of The Home Insurance Company was entered in June 2003. Only those insureds in our book of business that at that time had extended reporting period coverage with The Home Insurance Company received a notice, as those were the only policyholders that could still file a claim with The Home Insurance Company in its liquidation. At that time, there were no unexpired policies in our book of business, since any policies in force had either expired or been moved to other carriers.

Due to the nature of a claims-made policy, once a policy lapses or is non-renewed and following expiration of the extended reporting period (if extended reporting period coverage is purchased by the insured), there is no longer any coverage under that policy. In the case of Bishop Peterson & Sharp, P.C., all coverage under The Home Insurance Company policy issued by our office expired and therefore terminated in February 1994.

I hope that this information is of some assistance to you.

Respectfully,

Maureen Levy
